Essay Requirement for scholarship:

Describe how your community service project has taught you an important life-lesson that you may not have learned in the classroom. Maximum: 250 words.

*Service is something you have done because you wanted to help, not something you had to do as a requirement. For example, you may have volunteered at a homeless shelter, organized a clothing drive for the poor, helped out at a soup kitchen, organized a special event for students, etc.

Completed applications are due on Thursday April 13th, 2017. Submit completed application to Mrs. Karen Casale in room C1-2 (Cafe) or to Mr. Schiappa, Assistant Principal by 4pm.

Any late or incomplete application will be ineligible for the scholarship.
